

INDIGENOUS LEADERS TRACK

SEPT 11th, 2010

FROM 8:30 AM TO 12.30 PM

INVITED LEADERS:

PS. NORMAN AND PS. BARBARA MILLER, AUSTRALIA

They founded the Centre for International Reconciliation & Peace as a para-church ministry in Australia. Norman is an Aboriginal artist and businessman while Barbara is a writer, teacher, psychologist and sociologist. The Millers hosted many International conferences including one in the Canberra Parliament House in 2004 and are also working towards revival and transformation in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Communities.

PS. MICHAEL MAELIAU, SOLOMON ISLAND - PACIFIC

He is one of the founders of the All Pacific Prayer Assembly (APPA) also known as the Deep Sea Canoe Movement, in the Pacific. He is also the founder of the Aroma Bible College in the Solomon Islands. A very profound indigenous leader and prophet who was instrumental in bringing God's people together from all islands of the Pacific as watchmen of the Lord's army. Author of the Deep Sea Canoe.

PS. ENOKA GOHA, NEW CALEDONIA (FRENCH)

He established a Spiritual School of Ministry for the youth and families called De La Vie in his French Speaking island of New Caledonia. A prominent leader for the youth of his nation. He is also a writer and an influential speaker in many biblical and prayer seminars in his nation.

KENNY BLACKSMITH, NORTH AMERICA

Founder of Executive Director, Gathering Nations International – A First Nations registered Charitable Organization with a heart for biblical reconciliation, healing and unity. Author of the Covenant of the First People Canada, a historic Treaty between First Nation, Inuit and Metis people in Canada. Kenny was raised in the Cree community of Mistissini Lake, Quebec and is a former Deputy Grand Chief of the Grand Council of Crees, of Quebec.

PS. AYJAY JANTJIES, SOUTH AFRICA

He is a descendant of one of the first people nation of South Africa called the Khoi Khoi. He is the founder of the ministry Khoi Heritage Foundation Prayer Network which includes youth, business, social and other affiliations. He is very serious in his commitment to the mandate of the Khoi people.

TAIWAN AND BRAZIL

JHOPFAN also invited Indigenous Leaders from Taiwan and Brazil to participate.

Aotearoa (New Zealand)

For more information, contact us at ancj@jhopfan.org or visit www.jhopfan.org
P.O. Box 31393, Jerusalem 91313, Israel tel: +972-2626-1518, fax: +972-2626-4239